

A Year To Remember

Digitized by the Internet Archive in 2023 with funding from Newark Public Library

The 2005 Spartan

Ann Street School
National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence
Newark, New Jersey

Mr. Joseph N. Maccia, Principal

My congratulations to you, the graduating class of 2005. You are on the threshold of a new beginning which contains a multitude of opportunities and perhaps an equal number of pit-falls. Rely on the keenness of your senses, the training of your parents and teachers, and your own good judgement. Remember that for every freedom there is an equivalent responsibility. Face these urgent responsibilities with dedication and determination.

Each positive achievement in your life strengthens your character. Your wisdom serves to increase self pride. Respect of self and others becomes obvious to all those with whom you communicate. Traveling through life with the proper values makes your attainment of projected goals inevitable.

So it is with pride, not sadness, that I bid farewell to the class of 2005, for I know your dedication to excellence and your commitment to principles of freedom with responsibility will serve you, your community and your nation. Good luck, and may each of you find the success you seek.

Sincerely, Joseph N. Maccia, Principal

Special Memories

A Fond Farewell

The students of Ann Street School would like to wish our principal, Mr. Joseph N. Maccia, a healthy and happy retirement. We would like to salute you for being an outstanding principal and educator at Ann Street School for the last thirty-eight years and we would like to thank you for helping us to grow educationally, socially, and emotionally to become productive students who value themselves and respect others. You fueled in us a passion for learning and helped each of us to discover our own abilities and to reach our potential. We know that because of you we have been able to learn, grow, and evolve with the passing of each school year.

Under your inspired leadership Ann Street School was recognized as a National Blue Ribbon School of Excellence and remains the institutional jewel of the Ironbound. We will always be proud of this honor. You have given our school the benefit of your many attributes with untiring devotion and fidelity. Few can match the honor and respect that will always be associated with your name.

You have always been a very visible physical presence in our classrooms, at our assemblies, at our parent conferences, and at our graduations. You always seemed to have a vision of what our school should achieve and you accomplished it.

Embedded in our hearts and minds will always be your messages of, "Good decisions bring about good consequences, bad decisions bring about bad consequences," "Take a book to bed and read it!" "Girls, become economically independent!," "Be a leader, and not a follower," and "Be Tenacious." To us, you will always be the voice of Ann Street School!

We want you to know how much we appreciate your encouragement, we thank you for recognizing our academic accomplishments, and thank you for providing us with the tools we needed to succeed. Your love of young people is your real legacy to Ann Street School.

Now, as we bid you a fond farewell, we know that the sun will always shine on your future endeavors, and we wish you only smooth sailing in the years ahead.

Good Wishes On Your Retirement

We, the students of Ann Street School, would like to congratulate you, Mrs. Carmen Salgueiro, on your retirement. We have all benefited from your leadership, integrity, devotion, and the love you have for all of us and our school.

We are forever grateful for the work you have done on behalf of every student who attended Ann Street School during your tenure as Vice Principal. Your dedication and kindness were always evident in the many ways you touched our lives. You inspired us to believe in ourselves no matter what obstacles we encountered. You have always motivated us to do our best so we could achieve our goals in the future. Your passion for learning has been an inspiration to all of us.

Throughout your years at Ann Street School, you established programs that have led to the success of many of our students, such as our Reading Recovery Program, the Wilson Reading Program and our After School Counseling Center. You also redesigned the entire science program so our students could experience a hands-on approach to science, and you initiated the weather program that became the Weather Data Learning Center. You created a partnership with US Satellite and NASA and inspired our participation in the Signals of Spring Migration Study, as well as the Project 3-D VIEW Program. You were the visionary behind our science program and that is why our Science Lab is dedicated in your honor.

Mrs. Salgueiro, your hard work and dedication contributed greatly to us being nationally recognized as the first school in the city of Newark to ever become a Blue Ribbon School of Excellence. As our bilingual role model, you worked tirelessly as a champion for the continued success of our bilingual students. Even though many of us came from different cultures, speaking different languages, you made us all feel important and special.

As your time with us comes to an end, a new beginning awaits you. A beginning full of new experiences and a renewed sense of happiness is our greatest wish for you on your retirement. You will be greatly missed by everyone at Ann Street School!

Farewell Address

Now that our years at Ann Street have come to an end, we look back on many memories. We remember the people, the good, the bad times, and the many new experiences that all become a part of us. Many of these memories will be forgotten, but the lessons we have learned here will enable us to become someone who is always willing to give, as well as to receive.

There are many difficult years ahead of us, and they will not be easy. Life is full of disappointments and failures as well as good times and accomplishments. But, if we have perseverance and confidence in ourselves, we will be able to overcome any barrier that stands in the way of our success. Our years at Ann Street School have given us the ability to achieve this goal.

So, as we leave you, Ann Street, we say good-bye, with mixed emotions of happiness and sorrow. We thank you for sending us out into the world as better people.

The Little Ship of Courage

I saw a little ship at sail upon a wide, wide sea and its courage as it sailed along seemed awfully brave to me.
In usual terms it would be said its urge was far too strong, but when it reached the other shore, it proved this theory wrong.
Which indicates there is no chore we cannot fail to do, if we but have the fighting will to see our aim come true,
For though the challenges we face are as a wide, wide sea, when we meet them with full effort full success will be achieved.

Ann Street Goodbye

(1) We came here...now we're going, Schools are never quite the same, We'll miss you...dear old Ann Street, Don't feel bad you're not to blame.

Chorus:

So Ann Street good-bye
And we'll try not to cry
All our mem'ries of you will live on
We will be blue...'cause we're leaving you
Soon our hearts will be leaving you behind.
Linger a-while, and we'll go with a smile,
Like a friend who just happens to call,
For the last time, we will say good-bye.

(2) We know now we must go, now, Though our hearts plead us to stay, High school is our to-mor-row, You belong to yes-ter-day...

Graduation is a time
For feeling very proud,
For thinking lots of lovely thoughts and saying them out loud.

It's a time for feeling love
About to overflow,
And just before it leaps its banks,
to let the loved one know.

And so we're very proud of you for being who you are, for making something of yourself, for making it this far.

We're proud because we're a part of everything you do.
This time's the time to say how much love we have for you.

Love, Mommy, Daddy, Nuno, and Rui

We love you Cathy.

DONTQUIT

When things go wrong, as they sometimes will, When the road you're trudging seems all up hill, When the funds are low and the depts are high, And you want to smile, but you have to sigh, When care is pressing you down a bit, Rest, if you must - but don't you quit.

Life is queer with its twist and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure turns about
When he might have won had he stuck it out;
Don't give up, though the pace seems slow You might succeed with another blow.

Often the goal is nearer than
It seems to a faint and faltering man,
Often the struggler has given up
When he might have captured the victor's cup.
And he learned too late, when the night slipped down,

How close he was to the golden crown.

Success is failure turned inside out The silver tint of the clouds of doubt And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems afar;
So stick to the fight when you're hardest hitIt's when things seem worst that you mustn't quit

Your Loving family, Daddy, Mommy, Gabby, and Brandon

When you were just a baby, and I looked into your eyes,
I loved you more, my little one, than you could realize.
To hold my precious little girl, and see your little face,
I had been blessed beyond compare, with God's own loving grace.

A love that is so special, and all mothers know it's so.

A mother's love is endless, and will last an eternity,

But children do not understand, how much love that can be.

A special love that mother's have, and only they can show, And only when you are a mother, can you truly know.

To love so much a little one, that is a part of you,

A part of you to love and cherish, mothers know it's true.

You watch them grow, and hope they have prospered in your care, Because your love and understanding, constantly was there.
They never fully understand, the love that you have shown,
Until they reach a stage in life, when they are fully grown.

Congratulations Eva! We Love You very Much Love Always Mom & Your sister Andrea

OUR LAST GOOD-BYES

As we wave our hands to say good bye,

Our hearts break inside.

Tears roll down our eyes, and hugs are passed on,

Friendship ends.

So much time spent together grown with much love and care.

It all fades away within a few days.

Then there's new people and schools who appear in our lives.

I'm sure we'll laugh, cry, and miss each other.

Just because we're moving on,

Doesn't mean we'll not remember.

Secret to Happiness

The secret to happiness and well-being is no mystery. All it takes is the ability to do the following:

Forget
Apologize
Admit errors
Avoid mistakes
Listen to advice
Keep your temper
Shoulder the blame
Make the best of things
Maintain high standards
Think first and act accordingly
Put the needs of others before your own
Forgive

Seem like a tall order? Then try slipping as many of these "secrets to happiness" into your day as possible. You'll soon be rewarded with a more positive outlook on life. (Que seas muy Feliz ahora y siempre)

Congratulation
Daniel C. Pinheiro
With love,
Mom and Dad

Dearest Katherine.

We wish you the best of luck in Union Catholic. We know that all your future goals will be fulfilled.

You are a beautiful and smart young lady. Just reach for the stars and you will achieve all your dreams. Keep up all the great work.

Remember always how much we love you.

Love,

Aunt Lorraine and Uncle Al, Hugs and Kisses.

"Never forget yesterday.... but always live for tomorrow"

As we walk away,
We won't forget,
All that we have gone through,
All that we have met.
The secrets, the moments, everyday of our lives.
The hardships, the struggles, the things we all despised.

As our days together come to an end, We cherish our Precious Moments together. But no matter where we are, We will always be BEST FRIENDS FOREVER.

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2005

Congratulations! JOEY!

June 2005

We all know how much you loved being a student of Ann Street School, how proud you used to say "My School" and the admiration you had towards it's principal and staff. You made us very happy with your honor rolls and trophies. We wish you the best of luck in High School and we hope you can do as good AS you did in grammar School. Love always MOM, DAD and BROTHER.

To my Tesorito Michael

I love you and I am proud of you. I wish you the best.

Love

Abuela

Congratulations Michael!

Best of luck.

Tsunamis 4

It only took a moment for massive walls of water – tsunamis – to leave at least 210,000 dead and cause massive destruction in several Asian countries on Dec. 26. The tsunamis were caused by a 9.0 earthquake centered in the Indian Ocean off Sumatra. It was the most powerful earthquake in 40 years. The international community reacted quickly with aid amid fears about disease from the bodies and lack of clean water.

A few stories of miracles came from the wreckage, such as a woman found alive floating in the Indian Ocean on a palm tree five days after the tsunamis. But tens of thousands were missing and may never be found. Many were tourists from around the world, including the United States, who had been enjoying the warm climate for the holidays.

The internet became a focal point for people looking for loved ones in the region, as blog sites to news sources such as CNN enabled people to post information about missing friends and family.

The U.S. pledged $350 million in aid to the region, and President George W. Bush asked his two immediate predecessors in the White House, Bill Clinton and George H.W. Bush, to head an appeal for private donations.

Re-elected

President George W. Bush was re-elected, defeating Democratic challenger Sen. John Kerry of Massachusetts. The Republican majority in Congress strengthened, as the party gained four seats each in the House and Senate. Voter turnout was the highest since 1968.

War continues

U.S. forces remained on the front lines in Iraq, trying to bring stability to a country besieged by Iraqi rebels. Prior to Iraqi national elections in January, the U.S. increased troop totals to 150,000, the most since fighting began in March 2003. The Shiites won a plurality in the election for National Assembly seats. The National Assembly will elect the president.

Orphan aid

A Virginia college student raised $30,000 to help 950 orphans in a Kampala, Uganda, orphanage. George Srour, from William and Mary College, visited the orphanage through a United Nationa internship. He returned home and began a website fund-raiser with a goal to get $8,000 to replace the orphanage's bamboo school.

By adopting a Meeting Point Kampala orphan for $5, you can help ensure Santa delivers uniforms, books, school bags, geometry sets, crayons and many other items in need this holiday season. Visit www.dogstreetjournal.com/CIK for more information.

Reagan dies

Ronald Reagan, 40m president of the United States from 1980-89, died in June at home in California at the age of 93. His Reagan Revolution brought a renewed emphasis on fiscal and social conservatism and strength in foreign affairs, including an end to the Cold War.

Four in one year

Florida took the brunt of four major hurricanes in August and September. Charley came inland from the Gulf of Mexico and hit the peninsula; Frances and Jeanne from the eastern Florida coast; and Ivan made landfall on Alabama near the Florida border. As the storms moved inland, heavy rains, thunderstorms and tornadoes caused flooding and damage to everything from buildings to beaches from Texas to Pennsylvania. The U.S. death toll from the four storms was more than 120 people.

The hurricanes that struck the U.S. first wreaked havoc across the Caribbean. In Haiti. Tropical Storm Jeanne left more than 1,500 people dead and more than 1,250 missing. In the city of Gonaives, food and drinkable water was unavailable, homes, buildings and roads were destroyed, and relief agencies had difficulty reaching the needy.

Holiday weather

Ho, ho, ho – the joke was on many holiday travelers, who were besieged by ice and snow from Texas to Ohio on Dec. 22, as well as computer problems and a large number of sick employees at separate airlines through Christmas weekend. Just after Christmas, snow fell as far south as Brownsville, Texas, and battered the East Coast from North Carolina to Massachusetts. Heavy rains began a month-long deluge in southern California.

Scott Peterson was sentenced to death after a jury found him guilty in the deaths of his pregnant wife, Laci, and their unborn son, who disappeared Christmas Eve 2002. Scott Peterson's trial lasted 23 weeks and included testimony from his mistress.

Some peace in Sudan

Sudan's government and the Sudan People's Liberation Movement ended a 21-year civil war. But war continued in Sudan's Darfur region, where the United Nations is investigating allegations of genocide by the government. The U.N. estimated more than 70,000 people are dead in Darfur, with about 1.5 million living in refugee camps.

Gas prices up

U.S. gasoline prices increased dramatically, surpassing $2 a gallon in many parts of the country. In October, the price neared the record set in May 2004 of $2.054 per gallon, about 42.5 cents above the 2003 average.

Yushchenko wins

Viktor Yushchenko became Ukraine's president in an election marked by challenges from his opponent, former Prime Minister Viktor Yanukovych, a revote, and even an alleged poisoning. Medical officials have said it was an unknown illness that disfigured his face, as these July and December 2004 photos show.

Season put on ice

For the first time, a professional sports league lost an entire season due to a labor dispute. The National Hockey League (NHL) canceled the season after a 153-day lockout, centered on whether or not the players would accept a salary cap.

A Boston party

Chances are, Boston sports fans might never again enjoy a year quite like this one.

For starters, decades of Boston Red Sox frustration was wiped away in one amazing October. Trailing three games to none in the American League playoffs against the New York Yankees, Boston won four in a row and became the first team in baseball history to rally from such a deficit. The Red Sox rolled on to the World Series and swept the NL champion St. Louis Cardinals in four games. It was Boston's first World Series title since 1918, and it vanquished the dreaded Curse of the Bambino. which haunted the team since its infamous decision to sell slugger Babe Ruth to the Yankees in 1920.

The celebration continued into football season, where the New England Patriots were once again crowned NFL champions. The Patriots won their third world title in four years, defeating the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX, 24-21. In doing so, New England staked its claim to being the NFL's latest "dynasty," and sparked debate as to how they stand among the greatest teams of all time.

Basketbrawl

A November game between the Indiana Pacers and Detroit Pistons led to one of the worst fights in U.S. sports history. On-court shoving between Indiana's Ron Artest and Detroit's Ben Wallace escalated when a plastic cup lobbed by a fan prompted Artest to charge into the stands and touch off a riot with the crowd. Several players were suspended, and criminal indictments were filed against both players and fans.

Simply the best

American cyclist Lance Armstrong cemented his place in sports history when he won a record sixth straight Tour de France, while just eight years removed from overcoming a battle with testicular cancer. He plans to try for a seventh win.

Steroid scandal

Steroid rumors plagued baseball. The federal investigation into BALCO, a sports medicine lab in San Francisco, continued and leaked court testimony indicated that Barry Bonds and Jason Giambi admitted to using what turned out to be illegal substances. Later, former slugger Jose Canseco wrote a tell-all book and claimed to have used steroids with former teammates, including Giambi and Mark McGwire.

Audio updates

Apple's iPod, and other digital audio devices, were runaway successes. Apple's iTunes music store sold more than 100 million songs, making downloadable music more popular than ever.

Healthy trends

In two studies, about 22 percent of U.S. high school students said they smoked cigarettes regularly in 2003, the lowest percentage in more than a decade, according to a Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and 80 percent of Americans wear seat belts, according to the Department of Transportation.

Not just for kids

Some changes were made in what may be some of your favorite cereals. General Mills and Kellogg's switched from highly processed white flour to whole-grain flours and reduced amounts of sugar in many of their cereals. Studies have shown whole grains are healthier for the heart and add fiber to diets.

Will they last?

In fashion, ponchos, poofy scarves and big brooches were worn by girls who were dressed up or down. In general, a more feminine look appeared, as did the trend of wearing more modest clothing.
